THE UTAH THEATRE

A quaint Scottish romance of love and duplicity is told—and most delightfully told—in "Faith," the William Fox production starring the popular Peggy Hyland, which opened its run yesterday at the Utah theatre. All the scenes are laid in Bonnie Scotland, and each succeeding scene seems more pleasing than its predecessor. Peggy, the pretty niece of a crocheted old nobleman, is made to drudge in his kitchen to earn her keep. A scheming old hag and a slick young doctor plan to foist the doctor off on the uncle as the son of a long lost friend, win the hand of Peggy in marriage and also win her uncle's millions. Their scheme seems to work, but Peggy, with ready wit and a heart courageous at the very altar finds a way out of all her difficulties and in the end is won by the man she loves. It is a hauntingly beautiful play.

With Miss Hyland in the cast are J. Parks Jones, Edward Hearn, Winter Hall, Edwin B. Tilton, Milla Day, export and Frederick Herzog. J. Anthony Rouch wrote the story. Will be shown again today and tomorrow. On the same bill is a fine comedy, "Damsels and Dandies."

Boiled Down News
From Political Pot

NEW YORK, March 5.—Governor Edward I. Edwards, of New Jersey, who has declared war on the federal prohibition amendment, was acclaimed last night as "the next president of the United States" by members of the Tammany Osceola club, whom he addressed on the "Liquor question."

Gov. Edwards said: "It is a pity that the liquor issue is to remain in politics." That result, he added, had been actually determined by the 18th amendment and the Volstead act, "the biggest fool bill ever passed by Congress."

MITCHELL, S. D., March 5.—Casting aside his characteristic reserve for the first time since the opening of his campaign for the democratic presidential endorsement, James W. Gerard devoted practically his entire address here to a refutation of argument against the league of nations.

Without once mentioning the name of an opponent, the former ambassador's entire attack was directed against the anti-league speech delivered here Tuesday night by Senator Hiram Johnson, in his campaign for the Republican party presidential endorsement at the South Dakota primaries, March 23.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 5.—Secretary of State Amsherry has made a ruling that a candidate for president had the right to have his name appear on the presidential preference ballot both as a Republican and Democrat, so long as he affiliated with both parties.

NEW YORK CABARET
REPRODUCED IN BIG
FILM COMING HERE

Mae Murray and David Powell in "On With the Dance"

A faithful reproduction of the Cafe Montmartre, one of the famous Broadway dance palaces, is the feature of "On With the Dance," the George Fitzmaurice production featuring Mae Murray and David Powell, which will be shown at the Alhambra Theatre. The gay cabaret was built at the Paramount-Artcraft studio in New York from minute photographs. Several hundred "extras," two jazz bands, famous professional eccentric and "shimmy" dancers, and the entire corps of waiters from a Broadway "lobster palace" were engaged for the occasion. Some of the most famous actors, actresses, and public personages of New York, were present when the scenes were "shot" and are seen as diners at the various tables. This episode is declared to be one of the most brilliant and elaborate of its kind ever filmed.

Mae Murray has the role of a dancing girl, and is, of course, the center of interest. David Powell has the chief male part. The story is one of intense heart appeal and dramatic conflict. It was adapted by Ouida Bergere from a stage play.

It now also becomes apparent that the words spoken by the masked dancer at Berthana last evening, being "On With the Dance," solves the reason for her appearance in this city.

The Famous Players-Lasky Company leave nothing undone to inform the public that their Paramount-Artcraft pictures are being shown at the Alhambra Theatre. Hence the advent of the masked dancer drawing attention to the fact that "On With the Dance" is not an ordinary picture.
